|------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Overall accuracy score | 97%. God of Thunder #1–11 are adapted almost beat for beat. The main change is a new frame that ties the film into Time Runs Out . |

Straight from the page:

- Gorr's origin: a starving world, his family dies, his gods never answer. He finds All-Black and kills his first gods (#6).
- Young Thor, 893 A.D.: she finds a dead Native American god in Iceland, and Gorr fights her (#1–2).
- Thor of the present finds a planet whose gods are gone (#1).
- King Thor, at the end of time: Earth is dead, and Asgard is the last ruin (#1, #5).
- The Godbomb, built by enslaved gods (#6–11).
- The three Thors meet and fight together (#8–11).
- Gorr's son Agger (#7–11).
- King Thor uses the Godbomb's power against Gorr, and Gorr dies (#11).
- Old King Thor's granddaughters (#12–18, Aaron).

Changes and why:

| Change | Why |

|---|---|

| Thor is female in all three eras | Thor has always been female in our MCU. It's the same character. |

| She keeps the name King Thor in the far future | That's her 616 title, kept exactly as on the page. Thor has always been Asgard's ruler, whatever she's called. |

| The Beyonders' god-killing runs alongside Gorr's, and King Thor says so | It ties the film to Time Runs Out |

| All-Black's creator, Knull, is only a shadow | He's seeded for later (616, 2018) |

What the movie is about

ACT ONE: THREE ERAS

- 893 A.D., Iceland. Young Thor, a drunken brawler with an axe, finds a god nailed to a tree.
- Monday, May 3, 2027. Thor, ruler of Asgard, answers a prayer from a girl on a world where the gods have all gone quiet. Their temple is full of dead gods.
- The end of time. Old King Thor, alone on the ruins of Asgard, on a dead Earth,  fights the God Butcher's shadow army.

ACT TWO: THE GOD BUTCHER

- Gorr's origin: a starving desert world, his wife and his son dead in the sand, the gods silent. He finds All-Black.

- Young Thor fights Gorr in 893, and loses badly.
- Thor of the present follows Gorr's trail through time, to the end of the universe.
- The Godbomb: thousands of enslaved gods are building it. When it goes off, every god in every era dies.

ACT THREE: GODBOMB

- Three Thors in one place. They don't like each other. The young one is a drunk, and the old one is bitter. They have to learn why they're the same person.
- The slave-gods rise. The three Thors fight together.
- King Thor takes the Godbomb's power and destroys Gorr.
- Agger, Gorr's son, is freed.
- King Thor, to the present Thor: "You won't find Gorr's victims in my time. You'll find somebody else's. Something bigger. It's killing gods in every universe. Not one at a time. All of them."
