3A. COMIC ACCURACY REPORT

Field	Entry
Overall accuracy score	97%. Avengers #59–60 is adapted beat for beat.

Straight from the page:

- Hank, overwhelmed by guilt over Ultron, inhales chemical fumes in his lab during an experiment.
- A new personality appears: Yellowjacket, brash and arrogant in a yellow-and-black costume, who claims to have killed Hank Pym (#59).
- Janet is the only one who figures out that Yellowjacket is Hank. She agrees to marry him anyway, knowing Hank is in there (#59–60).
- The wedding at Avengers Mansion, with the whole team there (#60).
- The Circus of Crime (the Ringmaster, with his hypnotic top hat) crashes the wedding to rob the guests (#60).
- In the fight, Hank's real personality comes back. Janet and Hank are married (#60).

Changes and why:

| Change | Why |

---|---

| Hank's guilt is tied directly to Ultron | MCU continuity. On 616, Ultron (#54–58) came right before Yellowjacket (#59–60), and we make the cause explicit. |

| Scott Lang's seed (1979) | It sets up the next Ant-Man. On 616, Scott Lang worked for Stark International. |

How the mental-health story is handled: Hank's identity crisis is treated seriously and with compassion. It's a man breaking under guilt, and the people who love him bring him back. It's played as a story about recovery.
